20 January 2016

Dear Mr Oates

Re: Diamond Drill Core from Tom Oates tenure EL30324

The Northern Territory Geological Survey (NTGS) has assessed the diamond drilling information submitted in your email to the Department of Mines and Energy by geologist Arvid Buskas on 15 January 2016.

Under Section 93 of the Mineral Titles Act the titleholder is required to give drill core and cuttings to the department as soon as possible after cessation of activities unless the department has authorised the disposal of the samples. Please note the transportation of core including costs, shall be the sole responsibility of the submitting company.

Submission forms and procedures can be found on http://www.nt.gov.au/d/Minerals_Energy/Geoscience/index.cfm?header=Core%20Facility

For further information regarding submission please contact Darryl Stacey, Core Facility Manager, Darwin (08) 8984 3036.

NTGS wishes to thank you for submitting the following core to the department core collection in Darwin: WLMB001B (48.2m – 793.6m)

Yours sincerely

Tracey Rogers
